- Bold, bright, colourful boxes.
- Moving gifs, small videos can be used.
- Flat vector style would be preferable and more in line with the style.

Fixed header with fixed sidebars.

Scroll down arrows to hint there is content below

On scroll, the coloured left hand box goes full width, and the new text is revealed.

SUGGESTION

Boxes start with space inbetween.

As you scroll down the website, the "active" box scales up providing a 3d like effect, before scaling back down and fixing in place. As each box is cycled through, the boxes are placed back next to each other with no spacing.

This will provide a more interactive feel to the website.
